FIRST SEMESTER 2024-2025

INDIVIDUAL PROJECT ON IT245 FOUNDATIONS OF MULTIMEDIA AND WEB DESIGN

You are encouraged to collaborate in discussing the assignment. However, you must independently implement or write up your work. PLAGIARISM IN ANY FORM will not be tolerated. Identical assignments will result in a grade of zero for all students involved. Sources must be acknowledged within the assignment, with all references cited in APA format.

Assignment submitted late will not be accepted, except with a doctor's note or prior approval from the lecturer under special circumstances.

Please ensure that you submit your assignment through the designated course representative.

Each student must execute and defend the following:

- ◆ Select a subject area.
- ◆ Create a website with no fewer than five pages.
- ◆ Ensure all web pages contain appropriate content.
- ◆ All pages must be interconnected with functional links.
- ◆ Use suitable multimedia (no pornography or offensive language).
- ◆ Set up an account and host the website at github.com.
- ◆ Submit and defend the website along with the report by December 1, 2024 (Date may be changed later).
- ◆ Do not use a WYSIWYG (What You See Is What You Get) web authoring program like Adobe Dreamweaver.

- ◆ You may use the Code View feature of Dreamweaver or similar programs.

- ◆ Additionally, you are required to:
 - ◆ Write and submit a detailed description of the website development process in a 15-20 page Word document.
 - ◆ Include a title page and table of contents.
 - ◆ Attach instructional materials.
 - ◆ Number and label all figures using the chapter number (e.g., Figure 1.1. Site map for the first figure in chapter 1; the second figure will be 1.2).
 - ◆ Reference every figure in the text description (e.g., As shown in Figure 1.1, the site map was created for the planned website).
 - ◆ Ensure no figure takes up more than a quarter of a page.
 - ◆ Format all headings in size 14, Times New Roman, aligned left, and bold.
 - ◆ Format all text in size 12, Times New Roman, justified alignment, with 1.5 spacing.
 - ◆ Set page margins to 2cm on the top, bottom, and right, and 2.5 cm on the left.
